Entrepreneurial Leadership - Certificate

Explain how affected parties (students, faculty, staff) will be informed of the impending closure.

Email notification of the three (3) students in the Entrepreneurial Leadership Certificate program, with instructions to come in to speak with the Entrepreneurial Leadership Certificate adviser about the teach-out plan. All majors will also be told through the undergraduate ListServ. For faculty and staff, notification will be provided at departmental meetings and on the ListServ.

Explain how students will be helped to complete their programs of study with minimal disruption or additional expense.

The courses for the Entrepreneurial Leadership Certificate are always offered, since they are regular major courses. The remaining 3 students pursuing the certificate will easily be able to register for their courses in any given semester and complete all program requirements. Upload teach-out agreements with other institutions.

Explain how faculty and staff will be redeployed or helped to find new employment.

Not applicable since advising was done by one faculty member as part of his normal duties, and all course offerings are part of normal teaching loads for faculty. Faculty and staff will remain as they are currently employed and used, with the same effort.

How many students are currently enrolled in the program? 3

Projected graduation date for the last student(s) in the program? 12/2018

Rationale for inactivation/deletion

Consistent lack of student interest. Additionally, the recent creation of an Entrepreneurial Leadership Management Track
