Faculty Senate Aggie Spirit Award

The Faculty Senate Aggie Spirit Award was established by a resolution at the February 12, 2001 Faculty Senate meeting.

Guidelines for the Senate Aggie Spirit Awards are as follows.

1. Eligibility. Eligibility shall be based on the stated intent of the Faculty Senate to recognize "outstanding courage and determination in the face of adversity while attending Texas A&M University. "Adversity" should be broadly interpreted. Students need not have a physical handicap, or even a permanent condition; adversity might arise from a temporary physical, mental, or emotional condition, family circumstances, or a variety of other factors.

2. Nominations. The call for nominations will be issued on March 1 of each year, with a submission deadline of March 31. Nominations will be submitted to the Faculty Senate Office.

Because some potential candidates may prefer not to be considered, nominees will be offered the opportunity to decline the nomination before selections are made.

3. Selection. A Faculty Senate Selection Committee will be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate. The Selection Committee shall consist of three members of the Faculty Senate, one student representative, and one representative of the Department of Student Life. Insofar as it is possible to do so, awards should be made to all candidates who are deemed worthy of recognition.

4. Award. The Award shall consist of a framed certificate signed by the Speaker of the Faculty Senate and the Chair of the Selection Committee. Awards may be made at either the May meeting of the Faculty Senate, or at the first meeting of the Senate after the beginning of the following Fall Term.
