The University Curriculum Committee approved the following

1. New Course

FRSC 430. Introduction to Tree Improvement. (3-0). Credit 3. Study of genetic variation in forest trees and its use in tree breeding programs; includes introductory genetics, breeding schemes, progeny testing, seed orchards and seedling production. Prerequisite: Undergraduate course in biology, forestry or closely related field; junior or senior classification.

2. Course Withdrawals

HLTH 232. Personal Health for Health Professions I.

HLTH 233. Personal Health for Health Professions II.

ODED 410. Interpersonal Effectiveness.

3. Texas A&M University at Galveston

New Course

MAST 371. Archaeology of the Pacific. (3-0). Credit 3. Overview of the archaeology, history and cultures of the Pacific Rim, emphasizing the cultures of Polynesia, Melanesia and Micronesia.

POLS 366. Political Conflicts of the Middle East. (3-0). Credit 3. Understanding of the internal, regional and international politics of the Middle East; focus on selected political conflicts and the influence of the region’s cultures, religions, natural resources and outside political forces.

Prerequisite: POLS 206 or approval of department head.