The University Curriculum Committee recommends approval of the following:
June 14, 2002

Changes in Curricula

College of Education
Department of Educational Psychology
Undergraduate Program in Generic Special Education

New Courses

EPFB 428. Collaboration in School Settings. (3-0). Credit 3. Strategies and skills for providing collaborative services in school settings with emphasis on problem solving; coordinated team functioning and delivery of services at the individual classroom and school building levels. Prerequisites: Admission to program; junior or senior classification.

SEFB 414. Methods and Issues in Low-Incidence Disabilities. (3-0). Credit 3. Examination of how low-incidence disabilities affect academic and job performance; current methods for teaching and training individuals with low-incidence disabilities; includes 45-hour practicum with students with low-incidence disabilities. Prerequisites: Admission to program; junior or senior classification.

EPFB 484. Field Experiences. Credit 1 to 6. University-supervised experience in a professional employment setting related to specializations in guidance and special education. May be repeated for credit up to 6 hours. Prerequisites: Approval of student’s advisor; junior or senior classification.