memorandum

28 April 2003

To: Executive Committee
   Faculty Senate

From: Richard K. Curry, Presiding Officer
   Core Curriculum Council

Re: Requests of Course Additions from the Core Curriculum

A. The Core Curriculum Council recommends that the following course be added to the list of courses in the Core Curriculum which satisfy the requirement for Natural Sciences.

   ENTO 222 Insects in Human Society

   The CCC unanimously agreed that an exposure to scientific methodology and analysis as well as scientific information itself were central to the course’s content and character and appropriate to the spirit of the Core Curriculum and, thus, justified the course being included in the category.

B. The Core Curriculum Council recommends that the following course, submitted by the Texas A & M University - Galveston’s General Academics, be added to the list of courses for in the Core Curriculum which satisfy the requirement for International and Cultural Diversity.

   POLS 366 Political Conflicts of the Middle East

   The CCC unanimously agreed that an exposure to and analysis of non-U.S. cultures and cultural differences, along with their impact on contemporary concerns, were central to this course’s character and appropriate to the spirit of this Core Curriculum requirement and, thus, justified the course being included in this category.

C. The Core Curriculum Council recommends that the following course, submitted by the College of Architecture, be added to the list of courses for in the Core Curriculum which satisfy the requirement for International and Cultural Diversity.

   ARCH 345 History of Building Technology

   The CCC unanimously agreed that an exposure to and analysis of non-U.S. cultures and cultural differences and their impact on contemporary concerns were central to this course’s character and appropriate to the spirit of this Core Curriculum requirement and, thus, justified the course being included in this category.