The University Curriculum Committee recommends approval of the following:

Changes in Curricula

B.S. in Interdisciplinary Studies with Grades 4-8 English Language Arts and Reading/Social Studies Certification

Course Changes
MEFB 352. Planning and Development for Middle Grades.

Course title
From: Planning and Development for Middle Grades.
To: Curriculum and Instruction for Middle Grades.

Corequisite
From: MIDG 352
To: none

Course description
From: Implementing instructional strategies appropriate to development of middle grades students; planning of interdisciplinary curricula; student centered strategies related to inquiry and problem-based learning.

To: Study of educational theory and instructional strategies appropriate to middle grades education including planning and development of interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary curricula; student centered learning and methodologies. Field based course.