Resolution
Protest of Symbolic Violence

The Faculty Senate of TAMU adds its voice to those in protest of actions on campus on October 29, 2008 that included an invitation to throw eggs at a picture of a presidential candidate through the following resolution:

Be it resolved that the Faculty Senate deplores the low level of communication represented and the unfortunate connotations presented by the actions of a student group in their display which involved throwing eggs at a photo of a presidential candidate.