Through: Michael T. Stephenson, Associate Dean

From: James A. Aune, Department Head, Communication

Re: Undergraduate Courses Not Taught in Five Years to Be Dropped

We wish to remove COMM 456, Telecommunication Media Management, from the curriculum. It has not been taught since 2004, and it is unlikely we will have a qualified faculty member to teach it at any time soon.
To: Undergraduate Curriculum Committee
Through: Michael T. Stephenson, Associate Dean
From: Timothy J. Gronberg, Department Head
Date: March 19, 2012
Subject: Course Removal

The Department of Economics requests that the two courses listed below be removed from course inventory:

- ECON 319 Economic Development of the U.S.
- ECON 442 Personnel Economics
To: University Curriculum Committee

Through: Michael T. Stephenson
Associate Dean of Liberal Arts

Through: Nancy Warren, Professor and Head
Department of English

From: Cecelia Hawkins
Director of Undergraduate Studies in English

The following course that appears in the "courses not taught in five years" list should be eliminated:

ENGL 260 Introduction to Children's Literature

         Hispanic Studies

From: Richard K. Curry, Director of Undergraduate Studies
      Hispanic Studies

Re: Request to remove courses not taught

By means of the present memorandum, the Department of Hispanic Studies is requesting the elimination of the course listed below. The list course has not been taught in five years because it was created for a faculty member who has retired.

The course to be removed from the menu of available courses is:

SPAN 368 El Camino de Santiago

Thank you for your consideration of our Department's requests.

MEMORANDUM

Date: March 19, 2012

To: Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

Through: Michael T. Stephenson, Associate Dean, Liberal Arts

Through: Gary Varner, Interim Head, Philosophy

From: Michael LeBuffe, Director of Undergraduate Studies, Philosophy

Re: Courses not taught last five years

In response to the distribution, in late February, of a list of courses last taught prior to the fall 2008 semester, the Philosophy Department requests that the following courses be removed from the catalog:

PHIL 210, Concepts of Love
PHIL 483, Professional Ethics

We request that the following courses, which were also on the list, be retained for the following reasons:

PHIL 285, Directed Studies
PHIL 291, Research
PHIL 484, Professional Internship
PHIL 491, Research

While the above courses are rarely used, they are vital in certain cases.

PHIL 353, Radical Black Philosophies: this is a new course that is being taught for the first time this semester, 17 students enrolled.

PHIL 409, Studies in Gender & Philosophy: this is scheduled for 2012c.

PHIL 417, Phenomenology and Existentialism: this refers to a course that is no longer in the catalog. For the current catalog, we replaced this course with a pair of more narrowly focused courses: PHIL 417, Phenomenology, and PHIL 418, Existentialism.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

THROUGH: Michael T. Stephenson, Associate Dean

THROUGH: James R. Rogers, Department Head

FROM: Elisabeth Ellis, Director of Undergraduate Programs

SUBJECT: Removal of courses not taught

At your request, we in the Political Science Department have identified four courses listed in the catalog that should be removed because they are no longer taught. They are:

POLS 310 Legal Research,
POLS 311 China, Japan, & US,
POLS 400 Public Leadership Development,
POLS 421 Social Conflict.
