Course Description

PHAR 873  1 Semester Credit Hour
This course will review and assess the knowledge, skills, attitudes and behaviors required of a professional pharmacist. This course will be offered in a practicum format using active learning techniques as students work together to understand the integration of content from the didactic curriculum in their development as professionals. The grade in the course in large part will be based on a comprehensive curricular exam. Attendance will be required.

Learning Objectives

1. Students will examine and reflect on personal knowledge, skills, abilities, beliefs, biases, motivation, and emotions that could enhance or limit personal and professional growth.
2. Students will demonstrate responsibility for creating and achieving shared goals as evidence of leadership development.
3. Students will engage in innovative activities by using creative thinking to envision better ways of accomplishing professional goals.
4. Student will exhibit behaviors and values that are consistent with the trust given to the profession by patients, healthcare providers and society.

PHAR 873 will be conducted in accordance with the College-Wide Course Policies and Procedures as posted on the College Website http://pharmacy.tamhsc.edu/current/policies/index.html Specifically this refers to the policies and procedures for: Disability Support Services, Grading Policy, Rounding Grades, Communication Devices, Student Communication, Active Student Engagement, Attendance Policy, Academic Integrity, Course and Instructor Evaluations, Audio/Video Recording, Examination Administration, Examination Question Review and Appeal, Chain of Command for Student Problems with the Course.
Grading Policy

A student’s grade in every course in the curriculum of the Texas A&M Health Science Center College of Pharmacy is based upon performance and/or participation in classes or clinical rotations, laboratory work, examinations, attendance, professional attributes and attitudes, personal observations, and other activities applicable to that course. The standing of a student in any course is determined by the faculty. The proportionate weight of each factor is set by the course instructor and the department administering the course.

The right and responsibility to evaluate student cognitive and noncognitive abilities rests with the faculty. A grade of A, B, C or, in certain designated courses, S, must be attained in all required courses of the pharmacy curriculum in order to satisfy the requirements of the Doctor of Pharmacy degree. The College’s grading system is listed below:

- A  Excellent  90 - 100
- B  Good    80 - 89
- C  Average  70 - 79
- D  Poor    60 - 69  ⇒ (deemed unsatisfactory performance in the College)
- F  Failure  below 60

Grades will be assigned according to the following guidelines:
