Minor Field of Study

All Modern Language majors must select a minor field of study from departments or divisions within or outside of the College of Liberal Arts or in a particular area of interest (as in the case of interdisciplinary minors). The minor will consist of a minimum of 15 hours of coursework, as defined by the minor department. No more than 9 credit hours may be at the 100-299 level. Interdisciplinary minors such as women's and gender studies, classical studies, religious studies, and business have specific requirements; students should consult undergraduate advisors in these areas of study. A second major may substitute for the minor. Courses used to meet the minor requirements may not be used in the major. See also the statement on "Minor Field of Study" under the general requirements of the College of Liberal Arts. In general, the careful combination of foreign language skills with other major curricula enhances preparation for careers in business, industry and government. Teaching certification is available to majors through the College of Education and Human Development. Consult the College of Education and Human Development section under secondary teacher certification for additional information.

Any departmental major must earn a "C" or better in all major and minor coursework.

Other courses may qualify for the college and university requirements categories. Students should consult the approved list of courses available in the Undergraduate Student Services Office in the College of Liberal Arts. The lists incorporate University Core Curriculum requirements. No course can be counted in more than one category.

Reviewer Comments Angel Mario Carrizales (carri1214) (10/22/18 9:20 am): Rollback: Please address the following. 1) Update footnote 3. The information currently listed is not an appropriate format for the catalog. The footnote needs to be in a sentence describing how the requirement will be met. 2) RUSS 221 and RUSS 222 are listed in the plan of study grid but not in the degree evaluation. If these courses can be used to meet the degree requirements, they must also be included in the evaluation. Please add these course to the evaluation where appropriate.

Angel Mario Carrizales (carri1214) (10/31/18 3:02 pm): Initial concerns addressed.

Terra Bissett (t.bissett) (12/10/18 11:23 am): UCC approved December 2018.
