SOCI elective

Electives

1 A grade of C or better is required for credit.

2 SOCI courses do not count toward fulfilling this requirement.

3 The Graduation requirements include a requirement for three hours of international and cultural diversity courses and three hours of cultural discourse courses. A course satisfying a core category, a college/department requirement or a free or directed elective can be used to satisfy this requirement. See academic advisor.

4 Any 100-499 course. No more than 6 credit hours of SOCI 484 may count toward this requirement.

No more than 33 credit hours in SOCI may be applied to the major.

Other courses may qualify. Consult the approved list of courses available in the Undergraduate Student Services Office in the College of Liberal Arts or from departmental advisors. No more than one course may be counted in more than one category.

Please note that university requirements specify that all students must take at least two courses in their major that are designated as fulfilling a writing intensive requirement (W). See the section on general requirements for baccalaureate degree for more information.

The program includes a total Up to 18 hours of 168 hours which up to 18 hours the MPSA course requirements may also be applied counted toward both the Bachelor of Science in the Sociology and the Master of Public Service Administration. undergraduate degree requirements.

See the MPSA program in the Graduate and Professional Catalog for the MPSA requirements.

Minor Field of Study

Sociology majors are not required to select a minor field of study. If chosen, the minor must consist of 15-18 hours, with no more than 9 hours taken at a 100- or 200-level. No more than six hours from the minor may be used to fulfill other requirements. A grade of C or higher is required if a course is to be counted in the minor field.

Teacher Certification

Non-Sociology Majors To Teach Sociology

Students desiring certification to teach sociology in Texas secondary schools must complete a social studies composite with a sociology emphasis and required education courses:
