

Proposed Amendment to Title IX Language in Minimum Syllabus Requirements –
*Attachment F

The Minimum Syllabus Requirements document, approved by the Faculty Senate at the June 15, 2020 meeting, contains the following language under the heading Title IX and Statement on Limits to Confidentiality:

“Although Mandatory Reporters must file a report, in most instances, you will be able to control how the report is handled, including whether or not to pursue a formal investigation.”

It has been determined that this statement was not entirely correct, and the following revision has been proposed by the Office of Risk, Ethics and Compliance’s Dr. Jennifer Smith, Assistant Vice President and Title IX Officer:

"Although Mandatory Reporters must file a report, in most instances, a person who is subjected to the alleged conduct will be able to control how the report is handled, including whether or not to pursue a formal investigation."

If approved, the Minimum Syllabus Requirements templates found on the Faculty Senate website will be updated for use in the spring 2021 semester.
