

FACULTY SENATE BYLAWS

Proposed Revision – Fall 2020

Below are the proposed, current, and redlined versions of the Undergraduate Admissions Advisory Committee, found in II. N. 2. g. of the Faculty Senate Bylaws.

Proposed Revision to the Undergraduate Admissions Advisory Committee:

Membership shall consist of the following individuals:

- Vice President for Enrollment & Academic Services (Ex-Officio)
- Associate Vice President for Enrollment (Ex-Officio and chair)
- Associate Provost for Undergraduate Studies (Ex-Officio)
- Four (4) faculty members appointed by the Faculty Senate
- Two (2) representatives of the Council of Deans
- Two (2) representatives of the Academic Operations Committee
- One (1) representative of the Vice President for Student Affairs
- One (1) representative of the Executive Vice President and Provost
- Student Body President (Ex-Officio)
- Executive Director of Admissions (Ex-Officio)

All members except the chair have voting privileges.

This reporting committee provides advice on academic standards in undergraduate admissions policy, particularly for new freshmen. The committee will act as a resource and advice/support group to the Office of Admissions on the concerns of the University community regarding academic standards in admission policies. The committee is intended to represent the University perspective. Consequently, every effort will be made to have broad representation in the committee membership.

The Undergraduate Admissions Advisory Committee shall communicate in writing, through its chair, its recommendations to the Faculty Senate on policies dealing with academic standards in undergraduate admissions by way of the Executive Committee and simultaneously to the Executive Vice President and Provost.

Current Description of the Undergraduate Admissions Advisory Committee, found in II. N. 2. g. of the Faculty Senate Bylaws:

Membership shall consist of the Vice Provost (Ex-Officio), the Assistant Provost for Enrollment (Ex-Officio), the Associate Provost for Undergraduate Programs and Academic Services (Ex-Officio and chair), four faculty members appointed by the Faculty Senate, two representatives of the Council of Deans, two representatives of the Academic Operations Committee, one representative of the Vice President for Student Affairs, one representative of the Executive Vice President and Provost, the student body president (Ex-Officio), and the Director of Admissions (Ex-Officio). All members except the chair have voting privileges.

This reporting committee provides advice on academic standards in undergraduate admissions policy, particularly for new freshmen. The committee will act as a resource and advice/support group to the Office of Admissions and Records on the concerns of the University community regarding academic standards in admission policies. The committee is intended to represent the University perspective. Consequently, every effort will be made to have broad representation in the committee membership.

The Undergraduate Admissions Advisory Committee shall communicate in writing, through its chair, its recommendations to the Faculty Senate on policies dealing with academic standards in undergraduate admissions by way of the Executive Committee and simultaneously to the Executive Vice President and Provost.

Redlined Version of Description of the Undergraduate Admission Advisory Committee:

Membership shall consist of the following individuals:

- Vice ~~Provost~~ President for Enrollment & Academic Services (Ex-Officio);
- ~~the Assistant Provost~~ Associate Vice President for Enrollment (Ex-Officio and chair);
- ~~the~~ Associate Provost for Undergraduate ~~Programs and Academic Services~~ Studies (Ex-Officio and chair);
- Four (4) faculty members appointed by the Faculty Senate;
- Two (2) representatives of the Council of Deans;
- Two (2) representatives of the Academic Operations Committee;
- One (1) representative of the Vice President for Student Affairs;
- One (1) representative of the Executive Vice President and Provost;
- the sStudent body president (Ex-Officio), and the
- Executive Director of Admissions (Ex-Officio).

All members except the chair have voting privileges.

This reporting committee provides advice on academic standards in undergraduate admissions policy, particularly for new freshmen. The committee will act as a resource and advice/support group to the Office of Admissions and Records on the concerns of the University community regarding academic standards in admission policies. The committee is intended to represent the University perspective. Consequently, every effort will be made to have broad representation in the committee membership.

The Undergraduate Admissions Advisory Committee shall communicate in writing, through its chair, its recommendations to the Faculty Senate on policies dealing with academic standards in undergraduate admissions by way of the Executive Committee and simultaneously to the Executive Vice President and Provost.